CORNELL UNIVERSITY OFFICIAL PUBLICATION

Published by Cornell University at Ithaca, New York, monthly in September, October, and November. Semimonthly, December to August inclusive. Volume 39. September 1, 1947. Number 5. Entered as second-class matter, December 14, 1916, at the post office at Ithaca, New York, under the act of August 24, 1912.

FINANCIAL AID AT CORNELL UNIVERSITY

INFORMATION in this Bulletin applies only to the undergraduate divisions of Cornell University in Ithaca. Separate publications are available for students interested in the Medical College or the Cornell University-New York Hospital School of Nursing in New York City. Fellowships and other forms of assistance available to graduate students are listed in the Announcement of the Graduate School.

This Bulletin is issued for the guidance of two groups: prospective students, their parents, and counselors; and students already in residence. Correspondence from and concerning prospective students should be addressed to the Director of Admissions, Administration Building, unless specific directions to the contrary are given in the following pages. Students in residence should consult the Counselors of Students in the Administration Building, unless some other procedure is definitely prescribed.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND GRANTS-IN-AID

Many of the scholarships open to Freshmen are awarded on the basis of competitive examinations. Prospective students should therefore study this Bulletin early in the final year of secondary school, in order to be certain that their applications are on file at the proper time and that they make the necessary arrangements to take the required tests. No award to a prospective student is considered final until he has been accepted for admission and has begun his studies. The applicant should therefore be careful to follow every prescribed step in the procedure outlined in the General Information number for admission to the school or college of the University in which he desires to enroll.

As indicated in the following pages, some scholarships and grants are open to all students in all divisions of the University. Others are limited to students in particular schools or colleges; to men or women only; to students who have attained sophomore, junior, or senior standing; to persons from specified geographic areas; and even, in a few instances, to special racial groups, such as Chinese or American Indians. The donors of a large number of the available funds have placed emphasis on financial need as well as academic achievement. Every applicant should therefore study the entire Bulletin carefully to determine what qualifications are demanded before submitting an application for a scholarship or grant.

LOANS

Students who have successfully completed at least two terms in the University are eligible to apply for loans. (See page 33.)

PRIZES

Numerous prizes and special awards for achievement are listed in the pamphlet, Prize Competitions, which may be obtained at the office of the Counselors of Students in the Administration Building, or by writing to Cornell University Official Publication, 124 Roberts Place, Ithaca, N. Y.

EMPLOYMENT

Many Cornell students augment their financial resources by accepting part-time employment during the academic year. Assistance in securing this type of work, as well as summer employment, is provided by the University. For details, see the General Information number.

GENERAL SCHOLARSHIPS

(Available on a competitive basis to entering freshmen.
Open to both men and women.)

CORNELL NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS. (Including several John McMullen National Scholarships and the Eugene Meyer National Scholarship.) Open to entering freshmen. Annual award, $600 plus tuition. Tenure, not limited. Twenty-five scholarships are awarded annually. Applications must be on file not later than March 1. Candidates are required to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board. Applicants for these scholarships in the several regions of the United States must be of good character and personality, and must be thoroughly qualified for academic success at Cornell University. Final selection will be based both on capacity for scholastic achievement, and on promise of effective participation and leadership in other University activities. If the candidate plans to enter Engineering and is not eligible for the New York State Scholarships (see below), he is eligible for the John McMullen Regional Scholarship and should apply directly for that scholarship only. National Scholarship winners in the College of Engineering will be chosen from among the competitors for the John McMullen Regional Scholarships. (See p. 19.)

STATE CORNELL SCHOLARSHIPS. Open to graduates of the common schools and academies of New York State. Annual award, $200 reduction in tuition. Tenure, eight terms. Awarded by the Commissioner of Education, after a competitive examination. Apply to local high school principal, or to Commissioner of Education, Albany, New York. Students in residence who hold these scholarships should apply to the Secretary of the University for information.

STATE UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS. Open to graduates of the common schools and academies of New York State. Annual award, $350. Tenure, eight terms. Awarded by the Commissioner of Education, after a competitive examination. Apply to local high school principal, or to Commissioner of Education, Albany, New York. Students in residence who hold these scholarships should apply to the Secretary of the University for information.

UNIVERSITY UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS. Open to freshmen, men and women. Annual award, $200. Tenure, first two years. Eighteen scholarships. Candidates for these scholarships are required to take the following tests, given in April by the College Entrance Examination Board: the Scholastic Aptitude Test, the Achievement Test in English Composition, and any two other Achievement Tests. Scholarship candidates who are required to submit the December or January Scholastic Aptitude Test of the Board as a part of their entrance requirements need not repeat that particular test in April. All applicants for admission who wish to compete for these scholarships must, before March 1, notify the Director of Admissions, in writing, of their intention to compete, and arrange with the College Entrance Examination Board for the Tests above specified.

GEORGE W. LEFEVRE SCHOLARSHIPS. (Gift under the will of George W. Lefevre '89.) Open to freshmen men and women. Annual award, $400. Tenure, not limited. Awarded to the first five winners in the University Scholarship competition, with financial need also considered. In applying for this scholarship, the applicant should follow the same procedure and take the same tests as when applying for the University Undergraduate Scholarship (see above).

For further information regarding these scholarships apply to the office of Admissions unless otherwise indicated.

LOANS

Loans to promising students in need of assistance have been made possible by many gifts to the University. It is a general policy to grant such loans only to students who have completed at least two terms at Cornell.

The student in need of assistance should apply first to the dean or director of the school or college in which he is enrolled. If funds are not available from that source, he may apply for aid from one of the general loan funds through the Counselors of Students.

Approval of requests for loans is based on such factors as financial need, personal reliability, and academic progress.

Money borrowed from Endowment or University funds is to be repaid, with interest at 4%. Said interest starts when the student leaves Cornell, unless otherwise provided by the terms of the Endowment, at a time agreed upon between the borrower and the Treasurer. The borrower gives a note as security; collateral security is not required. The University has adopted certain rules which experience has shown to be necessary to ensure that these funds shall accomplish a maximum of effectual help to deserving students. These rules impose certain restrictions upon the Committee's disposition of the funds. Among the restrictions are these:

1. A student is eligible to borrow from this source only after maintaining a satisfactory standing in classes and in other respects during a residence of at least one year in the University.

2. A loan is not ordinarily made to enable a student to meet the expenses of the Summer Session.

3. A student cannot borrow more than $300 in any one year, and not more than $600 during his or her time in residence.

Applications and detailed information are available in the Counselors of Students Office in the Administration Building.
